The story is full of intrigue and mystery, genius and deception, beauty and despair. The drama begins in Fin-de-Siècle Vienna, travels to Los Angeles, visits our Supreme Court and ends in New York City. We will unravel together the culture, hypocrisy and anti-Semitism of Vienna all the while appreciating the art of Gustav Klimt and the problems of Austrian, Nazi, post WW II restitution.

With the help of a fantastic new book, Anne-Marie O'Connor's The Lady in Gold, we will become familiar with the spell binding fairy tale of Gustav Klimt's portrait of Adele Bloch-Bauer. The painting became an emblematic portrait of its time. She was the beautiful, seductive Jewish, Viennese salon hostess; He was the notorious artist in now-vanished end-of-the-century Vienna. In this class, designed for discussion, we will tease apart the twisted fate that befell both. Reading Anne-Marie O'Connor's The Lady in Gold is required, allowing for informed, active and spirited discussion. In addition to the four regular morning class meetings, we will enjoy a fine movie after lunch on the 3rd Wednesday, March 20th.
