

The Story of Manon

Presented by: Bob Weinman

Monday, October 30, 2017

9:30 am - 12:00 pm

Goleta Library
500 N. Fairview Ave, Goleta

Manon and des Grieux were children of provincial France and were only 17 when they met. They fell madly in love with each other and ran away to Paris.

But Manon was a girl who loved the pleasures of wealth and soon discovered that her charm and beauty could seduce very rich men to make her the queen, which Des Grieux could not.

This exciting story, written in the early 18th century, immediately became a classic and was the basis for a long line of interpretations, including opera, drama, ballet, film, and even several TV series. The greatest of all these is the opera Manon by the great late-19th-century composer Jules Massenet.

This one-day class will use Massenet's opera as a framework but will explore how each succeeding century retold the story in the light of its own sensibilities. It will serve as an introduction to the actual performance of the opera by Opera Santa Barbara the following weekend.

NEW: Opera Santa Barbara will hold a raffle at the class for two free tickets to the Opera, Manon!
