If you've lived in SB for any length of time you have heard in one way or another about the extraordinary individuals who have contributed their talents, time, treasure, and zeal to making the community we have come to enjoy and love. But it's a rare occurrence when a wide range of these civic benefactors are combined into a single course.

VISTAS Movers & Shakers class will describe the contributions not only of the philanthropist business men, but the strong minded women who broke the mold and made their mark, along with the horticulturalists that embellished the natural landscape.

- We will hear the personal vignettes from JJ Hollister III about his enterprising grandfathers
- Noted author, Ed Hartfeld, will speak on the "caballero extraordinaire" Dwight Murphy and distribute his new book free to all who attend
- Historian Jeremy Haas will take us back to Hispanic times with tales of the mechanically adept American, Joseph Chapman
- Kathi Brewster, a noted historian herself, will speak on the women in education, medicine, architecture, etc.
- A special documentary will be shown through the auspices of the Trust for Historic Preservation on the life of Pearl Chase
- Well known columnist and horticulturist Virginia Hayes will present her program on the master gardeners behind our residential and urban landscape
- Multi-talented retired lawyer Phil Wilcox will share his own personal experience with legendary Thomas M. Storke
- Our own Charlie Schneider, an international marketing manager with Union Carbide, will tell us about George Owen Knapp, its founder and president
