

The Role of Wine in Cultures Past and Present

Presented by: Rani Mclean

Three Mondays
November 13, 20, & 27, 2017

9:30 am - 12:00 pm

Valle Verde Social Room
900 Calle de los Amigos, Santa Barbara

This course focuses on different periods in history to triangulate key elements that influence the meaning of wine from past to present. Wine continues to be at the center of many cultures, such as France, Spain, and Italy, but wine culture and consumption in the U.S. is a relatively new phenomenon and to date has not reached the same level of significance.

A historical understanding of the California wine industry provides context to current shifts in viticulture care and wine production, as well as the lasting effects of post-Prohibition on current law.

Finally, we will focus on the importance of immigrant labor in facilitating the growth of California's wine industry.
